

A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.

— John 13:34-35

19TH ANNIVERSARY

CELEBRATION

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2018, 7PM

Join The House DC, Inc. as we celebrate making a lasting impact on the lives on inner-city youth and their families!

- Hear how racial unity stirred co-founder Richard Schacht's heart and how The House DC has spent the last 19 years helping multiple generations break free from violence and poverty.
- Listen in on a timely discussion with local pastors Thabiti Anyabwile and Mark Dever regarding racial unity.
- Hear inspiring, life-changing testimonies from our youth.
- Learn how you can join in our Incredible success!

Speakers

Thabiti Anyabwile

Thabiti Anyabwile serves as the senior pastor of Anacostia River Church. He has served as an elder and pastor in churches in NC, DC and the Cayman Islands. After a few years as a practicing Muslim, Thabiti was converted under the preaching of the gospel in the Washington DC area. He is the author of several books, including: Reviving the Black Church; The Life of God in the Soul of the Church; The Gospel for Muslims; May We Meet in the Heavenly World; What is a Healthy Church Member?; The Decline of African-American Theology; and The Faithful Preacher. Thabiti blogs at The Front Porch and Pure Church. He and his wife, Kristie, have three children.

Mark Dever

Mark Dever serves as the senior pastor of Capitol Hill Baptist Church in Washington, DC. He is the president of 9Marks Ministries and has taught at a number of seminaries. Mark has authored several books and articles, most recently, Discipling; The Compelling Community; and The Church: The Gospel Made Visible. Some of his earlier books include What is a Healthy Church?; Promises Kept: The Message of the New Testament; and Promises Made: The Message of the Old Testament. He and his wife Connie live and minister on Capitol Hill, with Connie giving much of her time to creating a children's curriculum (PraiseFactory). They have two adult children.
